Donor Bill of Rights

AAHPM adheres to the Donor Bill of Rights developed by the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP), the Association for Healthcare Philanthropy (AHP), the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE), and the Giving Institute: Leading Consultants to Non-Profits. AAHPM also adheres to the e-Donor Bill of Rights developed by the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP).

Donor Privacy Policy

Our donor's privacy is a key priority of the American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Care (AAHPM).

- AAHPM respects all requests to remain anonymous. An anonymous donor policy is in place to ensure that the identities of these individuals remain confidential.
- AAHPM never divulges the amount given when issuing letters of notification that a gift has been made in memory or honor of an individual.
- AAHPM neither sells donors' personal information with other organizations nor does it send donor mailings on behalf of other organizations.
- If a donor indicates that they would no longer like to receive postal mail or e-mail from AAHPM, the donor will be removed from the corresponding mailing list.
- This policy applies to all donors, regardless of whether they provided their information to AAHPM online, over the phone, via mail, or under any other circumstances.
