Guide to Key Documents About HPM Competencies, Measurable Outcomes, and Assessment Tools

Resource	Suggested Citation and Web Link	Published Reference
2007 version of the HPM Competencies, known as version 2.1 This version of the competencies was incorporated into the ACGME fellowship guidelines. In that form it is known as the "companion document" (see below). As of December 2009 it is the only document about the HPM competencies published in peer-reviewed journal.	HPM Competencies Project Workgroup. Hospice and palliative medicine core competencies, version 2.1. Retrieved July 28, 2010, from www.acgme.org/acWebsite/downloads/RRC_progReq/540_hospice_and _palliative_medicine_companion_02122008.pdf. Download this document.	Morrison LJ, Scott JO, Block SD, for the ABHPM Competencies Workgroup. Developing initial competency-based outcomes for the hospice and palliative medicine subspecialist: phase 1 of the hospice and palliative medicine competencies project. J Palliat Med. 2007;10(2):313-330.
2009 version of the HPM Competencies, known as version 2.3 This version of the competencies is the basis for the assessment toolkit.	Morrison LJ, Block SD; HPM Competencies Project Workgroup. Hospice and palliative medicine core competencies, version 2.3. Glenview, IL: American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine; 2009. Retrieved [DATE] from the American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine website. www.aahpm.org/pdf/competenciesv2_3.pdf. Download this document.
Measureable Behavioral Outcomes, September 2009 This document elaborates on the behaviors to be expected from the competent fellow. For each subcompetency, a specific, measurable behavior was identified to define a minimum level of subspecialist competence.	Morrison LJ, Block SD; HPM Competencies Project Workgroup. Measurable outcomes for hospice and palliative medicine (HPM) competencies, version 2.3. Glenview, IL: American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine; 2009. Retrieved [DATE] from the American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine website. www.aahpm.org/pdf/measurableoutcomes2_3.pdf. Download this document.
2010 Assessment Toolkit The assessment toolkit is a collection of assessment tools keyed to the HPM competencies and measureable outcomes.	Morrison LJ, Block SD; HPM Competencies Project Phase III Workgroup. Hospice and palliative medicine competencies project: toolkit of assessment methods. Glenview, IL: American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine; 2010. Retrieved [DATE] from www.aahpm.org/fellowship/competencies.html Access the toolkit.	